

U.G. 5th Semester Examination-2024

GEOGRAPHY

[HONOURS]

Discipline Specific Elective (DSE)

Course Code : GEO-H-DSE-T-02/B

(Social Geography)

[New Syllabus Under CBCS]

Full Marks : 60

Time : 2½ Hours

The figures in the right-hand margin indicate marks.

Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable.

UNIT-I

(Marks : 30)

1. Answer any five from the following questions:

2×5=10

- a) What is meant by cultural group?
- b) Define in-group.
- c) What is meant by social behaviour?
- d) Define social distance.
- e) Define caste.
- f) What is social structure?
- g) Define race.
- h) What is social relation?

[Turn over]

2. Answer any two from the following questions:

5×2=10

- a) Define social geography from different perspectives.
- b) Elucidate the concept of social processes.
- c) Differentiate primary social group from secondary social group.
- d) Specify any two social environmental issues with reference to India.

3. Answer any one from the following questions:

10×1=10

- a) Discuss briefly about the social stratification found in India.
- b) Classify social behaviour and describe different types of collective social behaviour.

UNIT-II

(Marks : 30)

4. Answer any five from the following questions:

2×5=10

- a) What is social justice?
- b) What is social inequality?
- c) Differentiate between quality of life and standard of living.

d) Define hypersegregation.

e) What is SIA (Social Impact Assessment)?

f) What is social exclusion?

g) What is the aim of SSA (Sarba Shiksha Abhiyan)?

h) What is the meaning of the term "social pathology"?

5. Answer any two from the following questions:

5×2=10

- a) Mention the key components of quality of life.
- b) Differentiate poverty from social exclusion.
- c) Mention five main objectives of NRHM.
- d) What is the importance of Social Geography?

6. Answer any one of the following questions:

10×1=10

- a) Discuss the trend and pattern of crime with reference to India.
- b) Briefly discuss the indicators of social wellbeing after Knox and Smith.